An Early and Large Middle Eastern Islamic Copper and Brass Coffee or Ritual Water Pot with pricked foliate decoration given by the Bahrain Royal Family to the vendor, 49cm high.

Provenance written by vendor: I have no official documentation with regards to the coffee pot because it was a gift to my Mother from the Bahrain Royal Family. My Father worked for Bahrain Petroleum Company from the late 50s to 1971 and my brother and I were both born there and went to school in Awali, Bahrain. Throughout his school days my brother was best friends with Prince Mohammed Bin Isa and on one occasion he (and his security) came to our house for my brother's birthday party. It was for this occasion Mum was given the pot.
